

Living Paycheck to PurposeSM

1-Day Financial Empowerment Program

Instructed by Shane Robson-Smith, the Workplace Money Coach

Palmetto Public Library
Saturday, June 15th
9:30am – 1pm

Open to all employees and adult Health Plan members, and their spouse's/significant others.

Cost is $10 per person, paid via cash/check at the workshop to cover the cost of materials.

Topics Covered

Create Your Vision of Financial Success

Kick off the program with motivation to help you better understand where your financial journey is taking you. Finding your “Why” is an integral part of building healthy & sustainable habits for managing your money.

Develop Your Financial Plan

Introduction to the Six Simple Steps to Financial Freedom - the backbone of the Workplace Money Coach program. Financial empowerment begins with a goal, a plan, and some motivation to get you started.

Take Control of Your Paycheck

A budget is the “golden tool” for reaching one’s financial goals. Introduction to a variety of budgeting methods and tips to help individuals take control of their spending and reallocate their income toward their financial goals.

Build Wealth and Live Your Best Life

Explore wealth building and creating passive income so that your hard-earned money can go to work for you. Highlights a variety of ways one can invest to create income and build wealth.

Register at www.manateeyourchoice.com/register
(select “Living Paycheck to Purpose” in the dropdown menu or use the search bar)